Practices and Games for 4-Year-Old T-Ball

This program allows 4-year-old boys and girls to learn the game in a less intense, less competitive environment, and focuses on instruction, competition and fun.

- Practices – One to two days per week before games start. After games begin, teams will practice once during the week.
 - Games – One game per week with the possibility of a few Saturday games depending on what other cities do.

Practices for Baseball and Girls' Softball

- Leading up to games – minimum of two practices on our fields; however, coaches may secure other fields and have extra practices.
 - Once games start, coaches get one practice per week on our fields; however, they can secure other fields and have extra practices.

Games for Baseball and Girls' Softball

- One to two games per week – weeknights and/or weekends (subject to change)
- Games will be played at Veterans Park, Warrior Park, Calera, Montevallo, Pelham, and Helena (subject to change).
- Depending on the number of teams per division, you may or may not interlock with other cities.
