

Historic Water Tower Restoration

Former site of Siluria Cotton Mill and current site of Alabaster
Municipal Complex

Project Plan

As a part of the Fast Forward initiative, our city's historic water tower received a much needed renovation. A historic landmark in its original location, it is important to invest in its preservation. We hope to see the early 20th century water tower stand for decades to come.
